

BA-702 SAMUEL P. TOWNSEND HOUSE - c. 1871-75 - 4900 Butler Road. Built by S.P. Townsend, one of early investors in Glyndon property. Shown in 1898 atlas as home of Frederick Home Hack, Baltimore attorney, long remembered for portrayal of Hamlet in Loyola College's 1865

DISTRICT 4 - continued -

production at the Holliday Street Theatre. Large, frame, Italianate house, 2-½ stories, hip roof and heavy bracketing; central entrance pavilion, full-width front porch. White clapboard covering. Also large barn. Former owner: Scott A. Broadbent. Owner: Thomas C. Mitchell.

BA-702

Samuel P. Townsend House